Dear Friends,

Welcome back to the Beethoven in the Rockies Concert Series! Our 2023 season will explore some of the most exciting and unique orchestral and ensemble music in the stunning UNC Campus Commons Performance Hall. We will begin with the much-anticipated return of the Boulder Chamber Orchestra under Maestro Bahman Saleh, featuring Dr. Jubal Fulks on violin, and Croatian-Austrian Guest Pianist Petar Klasan. The program includes A. Dvorak's poetic "Romance" for violin and orchestra, Beethoven's heroic Piano Concerto No. 3, and Mozart's famous "Haffner" Symphony.

Our second concert will present our very own Greeley Chamber Orchestra under the baton of Maestro Dan Frantz, with an exciting young pianist Hanguang Wang, and Dr. Adam Zukiewicz joining forces for a very unique performance of Mozart's Concerto for Two Pianos. The program will conclude with the Beethoven's glorious Symphony No. 8.

The following concert will feature the Boulder Choral with the Boulder Chamber Orchestra and will take us on a spiritual journey: we will hear a rare performance of Mozart's magnificent Great Mass in C minor, as well as a premiere of a deeply prayerful work "Summation" by our Resident Composers Jim Klein and Ian Jamison.

Our final concert will present the Cheyenne Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Maestro William Intriligator, in an epic program featuring Beethoven's joyful Piano Concerto No. 2 with Dr. Adam Zukiewicz as a soloist, and Mahler's monumental Symphony No. 1, nicknamed "Titan".

We look forward to welcoming you at the concerts!
